All guests bowling must wear bowling shoes. Children wearing less than children's size 9 may wear own shoes, such as tennis shoes to protect feet/toes.

Only one person on the lane at a time. (Exception is an adult assisting a child)

Wait for balls to return and stop. Putting hand between balls to stop them can smash fingers.

Do not reach into ball return to retrieve a returning ball. Ask our staff for assistance if a ball is stuck.

Do not pass the foul line for any reason. Lanes have oil which will cause you to slip and fall plus will leave oil on bottom of shoes. If a ball is stuck down the lane, ask our staff to retrieve it for you. Keep the front edge of the ball ramps in front of the foul line.

Wait for the sweep to go down and go back up between balls. Only throw one ball at a time.

No running.

Respect bowlers around you. Stay in your lanes and out of others lanes adjacent to you. When a bowler is bowling next to you, it is proper to take turns and wait for them to bowl before stepping onto the lanes.

Keep cake and beverages for children on the table set up on the tiled area. Parties can get messy.

NOT ALLOWED: The following are included but not limited to items not allowed at the event. Again, no outside food or drinks. Nothing messy, such as confetti, silly string, piñata. No noise makers. Do not move tables and/or set up tables without staff approval. Keep carpeted concourse area clear for walking through.

WHAT CAN YOU BRING? Cake, cupcake or cookie cake. Gifts (no alcoholic gifts as no outside alcohol is allowed on premises), your own table settings and/or balloons if you do not wish to use one's from Tomball Bowl.

TOMBALL BOWL IS A FAMILY ORIENTED BUSINESS. Please refrain using foul language and/or unruly behavior in the presence of others at the center, especially around children. Tomball Bowl reserves the right to ask those becoming unruly to leave the premises.
